Eating From
the Tree of Life:
Living in the Smiles

Bible Stories for the Young Coloring Book

Bible Stories for the Young is not a “children’s bible” or a “children’s translation.” It’s good ol’ fashioned storytelling much like you’d do around a campfire or while tucking a child into bed.

Our hope is to share with children the Alive and Active Word (Hebrews 4:12) that aims to get at the motives of why people (adults AND children!) do what they do.

Once complete, there will be 365 video stories, all free without ads or accounts. In addition to the easy-to-use mobile app, all the videos, additional resources and more downloadable coloring pages are at BibleStoriesOnline.com. Captioned text in English and several other languages is available on YouTube.
